

THE SERVE CENTER PRESENTS

AT THE CROSSROADS

NEXT STEPS IN
EDUCATION FOR FOSTER
STUDENTS

AUGUST 6-7, 2019

Indianapolis, IN
Hilton Hotels and Suites
120 West Market St

Summit Goals Include:

---

Building a strong network for state level education & child welfare agency POCs

Developing a strong understanding of federal education law affecting students in foster care

Bridging gaps between child welfare & education systems

Problem solving, resource sharing

Identifying strategies & effective practices

---

The SERVE Center is excited to host the 2nd annual summit for State Educational Agency Points of Contact (POCs) & their Child Welfare counterparts.

The SERVE Center is a university-based research, evaluation, & technical assistance center. For nearly 20 years, SERVE has worked with educators & policymakers to improve education. A commitment to engage collaboratively with the field permeates everything SERVE does.

SERVE houses the National Center for Homeless Education, the North Carolina Homeless Education Program, and the North Carolina Foster Education Program.